5 HIV FACTS
What is HIV?

HIV is a virus. This virus lives inside the body.

HIV stands for Human Immunodeficiency Virus.

HIV makes it easier for people to become ill.

This happens because HIV makes it hard for the body to fight infections.

It is important to get the right information and advice about HIV.

These are some facts you should know.
1 Who can get HIV?

Anyone can get HIV.

2 How to find out if you have HIV

There are tests to check for HIV.

This can be with a GP or in a sexual health clinic.

You cannot stop getting HIV with a vaccine.

If you are worried you might have HIV it is important to get tested as soon as possible.
If the person with HIV is not on good treatment they can give HIV to someone else.

This can happen by having sex without using a condom.

This can happen by sharing needles with other people.

HIV can be passed from a mother to her baby during pregnancy if she is not on treatment.
You will not get HIV from touching or kissing. You cannot get HIV if someone coughs on you.

You will not get HIV from sharing things like knives and forks.

You will not get HIV from sharing glasses or cups.

There are ways to keep yourself safe from HIV. Taking PrEP or PEP (tablets which prevent HIV either before or just after you’ve been exposed to it).

Never share needles with another person.

If you are having sex use condoms.
There is no cure for HIV.

There are medicines for HIV that can keep people healthy.

This means the person with HIV cannot give HIV to someone else.

People with HIV who are on good treatment can live long and healthy lives like everybody else.

There are people and places that can help.

Pictures by Photosymbols. This easy-read guide was developed by National AIDS Trust in partnership with Mencap.